

Ladybugs and Butterflies By Anthony

I am going to talk to you about the differences between ladybugs and butterflies.

They both fly. They both have antenna. They both have wings. They both crawl.

Ladybugs eat aphids. They are not colorful.

Butterflies eat leaves. They are colorful.

What do ladybugs and butterflies have in common?