

Ladybugs and Butterflies

By Johnny Rynearson

I am going to talk to you about how ladybugs and butterflies are the same and different.

Ladybugs and butterflies both fly. They both have 3 body parts. They both are insects.

Ladybugs eat aphids. They are not colorful.

Butterflies eat nectar. They are colorful.

Did you learn about how ladybugs and butterflies are the same and different?

