

Ladybugs and Butterflies

By Tyson

Ladybugs and butterflies are alike and different.

Ladybugs and butterflies both hatch from an egg. Both ladybugs and butterflies have 6 legs. They both have wings.

The shape of a butterfly is more like ovals hooked together. Butterflies often fly south for winter.

Ladybugs hibernate in the winter. The shape of a ladybug is round like a circle.

How are ladybugs and butterflies alike and different?

